

Human

You are a human, a part of the Human, anything more descriptive is a tool of “direction” to divert your attention from the realization of the fact that the Human is the “ultimate” of creation. Even to specify man or woman begins the breaking down of “ultimate” by “direction” for the purpose of directing intent towards the physical, which is the design of the imbalance that comes from not realizing the “ultimate”.

I’m talking about the beginning of Society, the main brain computer of “direction”. This was the fall of man from ignorance or the rising above the basic animal of Life. I’m talking about the ability of free will to use imbalance for mastering the physical world. I’m talking about a force, like electricity, that actually creates here and now as we live here and now, that flows through the individuals and is controlled by the Human.

By realizing the “ultimate” we can balance our physical creation, the individuals will alter the flow of the “direction” that is going to the main brain. “Acknowledge the Feeling” is the physical key to realizing the “ultimate”.
