

Love and Spiritual, “Lies”

That includes most and maybe all that you have ever been told about either subject.

Love is OF Life, nothing else and should not be compromised.

Spiritual is OF higher intelligence, not a badge to be worn while suffering the compromising of Life.

The Feeling we call Love is the creative force flowing through the individual’s God Connection at an increased level. Society “directs”, with all of it’s explanations of the phenomenon given physical excuse (a man, a woman, nation or Earth).

The knowing of Spiritual is “directed” by Society as facts that are to be accepted as the method for living in the physical world (encouraging peaceful suffering and obedience).

Please excuse my ruthless use of the truth when I say, “Lies” for indicating Society’s “direction”. It is the way of creation in the physical world, it is the + and – of the force, other than the perfect balance 0, other than the truth. The complexity of “Lies” from the simple + and – of creation’s spark is like computer technology progressing from 0&1. The development of free will from the animal was like the progress from megabytes to gigabytes, Spiritual is terabytes. “Lies” only exist in the realm of “giga”, your dog can’t lie to you and the Spiritual knows the truth.

Love and Spiritual OF Life higher intelligence, the force through the GC of man “directed” by Society to have physical reason is the root of all religion, the force and knowledge of it. Religions are physical rules for a controlled progression of Life in the physical world. For mankind to make the “turn” or “connection” to God that they teach about, Rule has to be given to higher than the physical, the force or God.

That’s what BLitTeR is going to do.

Love is OF Life. The pure stuff, the Feeling of the force flowing through you occurs when two or more Life entities experience oneness. It can be with your lover or a beautiful piece of Earth. Of course you can always hook up direct, as in blissful meditation. The only requirement for the experience is, be human. Experience of the Feeling is human, animals are compatible for the generation of the Feeling and they respond by training, they do not Love. Animals nurture and protect by instinct, a starving animal will eat its young when survival overrules procreation.

Love “Lies” is a Society tool for progress, “directing” the force into the world of physical accomplishment. Instead of reveling in the Feeling we act for physical gain, of that that we attach Love to.

Spiritual knowledge, what’s right and wrong for the progress of Life. All of religion comes from the highest minds, of a time and place, instructing in the way they see to be the best for the progress of Life. The intent is good, and it is a necessary guide for the “common” understanding of the effects of personal actions on the overall concerned group, of a particular time and place.

Spiritual knowledge as offered by religion, Society’s “Lie”, is most often correct in its guidance, but is the “Lie” by claiming to be the absolute truth, which is only here and now, not something prerecorded.

Love OF Life is compromised by the “direction” of Society. When attached to something physical, that thing is given privilege. Spiritual knowledge as “directed” by Society authorizes the giving of privilege, instructs to suffer for and commands obedience to privilege given, with a reward promised for accepting the abuse of Life here and now.

The “direction” into physical has constructed, from the perfect balance, everything that exists here and now. Love and Spiritual, we the Human, are the leading edge of here and now. Here and now we have built a world of progressive physical possibilities. Physical has a limit, that’s what makes it physical. The “direction” must be changed for progress to continue.

The “direction” of the individual is to “acknowledge the physical” when it comes down to the Bottom Line of making a decision, right or wrong the physical rules. To “acknowledge the Feeling” of other than the physical as a “real thing”, “common” to all will effect a “common” input to Society, so the “direction” of Society will Turn Right.
